   (c) The President shall, in his or her annual budget request, request the Board of Governors to seek from the Florida Legislature recurring funds to be allocated toward meritorious performance, correcting market inequities within the faculty, and raising average FSU faculty salaries to the national average for top 25 public research universities with very high research activity as reflected in the most recent Oklahoma State University survey and similar sources as appropriate. The distribution of any salary increase funds obtained by the University shall be collectively bargained by the BOT and UFF.

Base salary, or salary rate, refers to the rate of pay over the faculty member’s 9-month or 12-month appointment period and does not include summer salaries for 9-month faculty members, bonuses, overloads, or payments from outside organizations. (1) The CIP code must correspond to a degree program offered by the University.
Eligible tenured and tenure track faculty members shall be assigned a CIP code corresponding to a degree program offered by the faculty member's "Tenure Home" department. For interdisciplinary faculty members and specialized faculty members, excluding librarians, the CIP code most closely reflecting the majority of their effort shall be used.

(2) The assignment of the CIP code shall not be subject to grievance under this adjusted for the following:

(1) A years-in-rank adjustment shall be made, which shall be plus or minus, as appropriate, one percent (1.0%) of the base equity salary multiplied by the difference between the faculty member's number of years in their current rank at FSU and the average years in that rank at FSU for all eligible faculty members under this section. The average years in rank for eligible Associate Professors shall be 4 years. Eligible Associate Professors shall not receive credit in the form of a years-in-rank adjustment for their time in rank at FSU over 8 years.
(2) In addition, for eligible faculty members who have received any departmental or deans' merit increase from August 9, 2005 through December 31, 2015-2016, the total amount of such merit increases shall be added to the faculty member's target equity salary.

(g) Equity Salary Difference. The "equity salary difference" for each eligible faculty member is the difference between the faculty member's target equity salary, as defined in section 23.6(f) and their nine-month equivalent salary as defined in section 23.6(d). If this figure is less than zero, the equity salary difference is defined as zero.

(1) For eligible twelve-month faculty members, with the exception of the three Librarian ranks, this value is multiplied by 1.222 (or 11/9).

(2) For fiscal year 2016-2017, the total E&G funds available for Market Equity purposes were eight hundred thousand dollars ($800,000). For fiscal year 2016-2017, the total E&G funds available for Market Equity purposes for specialized faculty were two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000). Distribution pools for tenured and tenure track faculty were separate from distribution pools for specialized faculty.

(3) The Needed Market Equity for each distribution pool is defined herein as the sum of the "equity salary differences," as defined in Section 23.6(g), for all eligible E&G-funded faculty in that distribution pool, as of August 7, 2017.

(4) The Available Market Equity Ratio for each distribution pool is defined herein as the total funds available for Market Equity purposes in that pool, as described in Section 23.6(h)(1), divided by the Needed Market Equity, as of August 7, 2017, for the each distribution pool.

(5) The Market Equity Increase for an eligible faculty member shall be equal to the Available Market Equity Ratio for their respective distribution pool multiplied by the faculty member's equity salary difference.

(6) The maximum increase for an eligible tenured or tenure-track faculty member shall be $49,500,000. The maximum increase for an eligible specialized faculty member, as defined in 23.6(a), will be $37,500,000. The remaining funds available after the cap is applied shall be distributed to the remaining eligible faculty members in their respective distribution pool by multiplying the Available Market Equity Ratio for that pool by the remaining faculty member's "equity salary difference."

(7) The 2017-2018 increases shall be effective September 9, August 6, 2016-2017 TBD.

(i) CIP Code Assignment Review Procedure. An eligible faculty member may request a review of her or his CIP code determination by submitting a written request to the Vice President for Faculty Development and Advancement. The request shall contain a general description of the

that the committee vote results in a tie, a mutually agreed upon chairperson will be selected by the committee and shall make the final determination. The decision of the committee shall be final

(i) Administration Commensurate Compensation. To acknowledge that the work of the faculty and the administration (i.e., the President, Vice Presidents, and Deans) are equally important to the success of Florida State University, the Board of Trustees shall award equivalent percentage increase amounts to both groups. If, during the 2017-2018 contract period, the Board twelve (12) month period. For each such increase, the list shall provide the name and classification/rank of the individual receiving the award, the nature of the award (stipend or one-time bonus), the name of the award, and the amount of the award.

(c) Each year, at the same time as the Board provides the list described in (b) above, the Board shall provide the UFF with copies of the selection criteria and procedures for all awards named in said list.

5. Increased duties and responsibilities. A salary increase may be awarded to a faculty member for a substantial increase in duties or responsibilities, such as service as a department chair or an analogous responsibility.
6. Recognition for Distinguished Faculty. This category is designated to recognize exceptional performance of faculty members. The University may provide salary increases to faculty members for extraordinary performance. For faculty members in tenured or tenure-seeking positions, the University may assign the title of “Assistant/Associate Professor with Distinction” or “Distinguished Professor” to the recipients of these increases. For faculty members in “Specialized Faculty” positions, the University may assign the words “With Distinction” after the title that the faculty member currently holds.
