

Florida State University - Notification of Social Security Number Collection and Usage

In compliance with Florida Statute §119.071(5), this serves as notification of the purpose for the collection and usage of your Social Security Number. The Human Resources Department collects and uses your social security number only for the business purposes in performance of the University's duties and responsibilities. The collection of social security numbers by FSU is either specifically authorized by law or imperative for the performance of the University's responsibilities.

To protect your identity, FSU will secure your social security number from unauthorized access, prohibit the release of your social security number to unauthorized parties, and assign you a unique employee identification number (EMPLID). This EMPLID is used for all associated employment and educational purposes.

To ensure that your information is properly linked to outside governmental entities such as the Internal Revenue Service, your social security number may be used for legitimate business purposes, including the following:
