

Employment of Relatives (Nepotism) Policy Form

Under the University's Employment of Relatives \(Nepotism\) Policy, relatives [defined as individuals related to each other in one of the following ways, whether by blood, adoption, marriage (in-laws/step), or other legal action: spouses; parents; grandparents; children; grandchildren; siblings; aunts/uncles; nieces/nephews or other persons residing in the same household, including but not limited to domestic partners] may not be employed in positions where they will report, directly or indirectly, to each other. Deans, Directors, Department Heads and Principal Investigators (PI) are responsible for ensuring that employees in their units do not control the scheduling, timekeeping, performance evaluations, disciplinary actions, reporting effort, verification of research progress or other work performance, employment, or payroll functions for their relatives. Additionally, personnel appointments on a sponsored research account are restricted to persons who are not relatives of the Principal Investigator (PI).

Section 3 (completed by Supervisor):

If the relative falls anywhere within the candidate's chain of command (even if there are layers of supervision in between), if either employee would control any of the employment/payroll functions outlined in the first paragraph for the other, or if the appointment would entail a relative and PI working on the same sponsored research account, additional approvals will be required. After reviewing the information provided by the candidate and the official reporting structure, please indicate if a direct/indirect reporting relationship or control over any of the employment/payroll functions outlined in the first paragraph would exist for each relative listed.

I acknowledge that the above candidate/employee has relatives employed at Florida State University and that no direct or indirect subordinate-supervisor relationship exists and neither employee will have control over the employment/payroll functions as outlined in the first paragraph for the other.

I acknowledge that the above employee has relatives employed at Florida State University that will result in a direct or indirect reporting relationship or control over an employment/payroll function as outlined in the first paragraph. I understand further evaluation is required and additional approvals must be obtained prior to hiring.
